Return of Favorable Conditions Marked by Corresponding Improvement in Racing and Patronage at Latonia-Formful Results.

Cincinnati, O., July 13.—There was marked im-provement in all respects at Latonia this afternoon and conditions somewhat similar to those of the earlier part of the meeting prevailed. Ideal weather, provement in all respects at Latonia this afternoon and conditions somewhat similar to those of the carriler part of the meeting prevailed. Ideal weather, a fast track and spirited racing were factors in crousing keen enthusiasm. The attendance was larger than for many days and the betting brisker than at any previous time this week. Most of the purses were accounted for by favorites and second choices and this added to the spectators' enjoyment. The feature race, a handicap at three-quarters, was won by the erratic Donau, with Follie Levy second and Fairy Story third. Quartermaster and Follie Levy was the public choices in the race, but the latter ran in dull fashion under weak handling and never was a dangerous contender. Prince Gal also ran poorly. As a result of his fractious behavior at the barrier this afternoon, starter Cassidy again put Donau on the schooling list.

The closing dash furnished the chief disappointment of the afternoon in the failure of John Louis to get any portion of the purse. Interference, which he suffered on the first two turns was responsible for his poor showing. The purse went to Superstition, which showed a greatly improved performance as compared with his previous essay. Foxy Mary, making her first start in a long time, took second place and Tom Bigbee was third.

The fift race went to the well handled Naughty Lad, which wore down John Furlong, the favorite, in the linal sixteenth. John Furlong, the favorite, in the linal sixteenth. John Furlong probably was hest, but had a rough trip.

Lathe third race Melvor and Winning Widow ended in a sensational stretch duel and finished in above order. Near the end Jockey Rooney made a vicious slash at Loftus with his whip, for which he was fined $50 by the judges.

Cracker Box upset an intended good thing in the opening race when he landed in advance of Lleuenatt Sawyer and El Toro. The latter was the medium of extensive support and went promisingly until the final furlong.

About forty horses have been secured to take part in the three-be at least three weeks before a lossiful.

R. J. Mackenzie's horses were shipped tonight to R. J. taking to it well and feneing admirably. Captain John is showing superiority over the others at present.

Capt. J. T. Williams announced that he would probably reconsider his plans of shipping Governor Gray to the farm for the summer and that he will likely send him to Fort Erie to engage in the racing during the meeting following that at Windsor.

George Odom has announced his intention of going to Windsor, and will take with him Nimbus. Follie Levy. Fireman and others. Jockey Glass will accompany the stable.

George Long's stable will go back to Churchill Downs for the summer, as will W. F. Schulte's and W. H. Fizer's. None of these, however, will get to Louisville until late next week, as each stable has a sick horse to care for. Next month Mr. Fizer will take up Ed Alvey's Pinkola, which has been turned out since May. He will try to get the 1908 Latonia Derby, winner ready for a fall campaign. He was an exceedingly sick horse in the spring, but is now said to have entirely recovered.

Theodore Coles, trainer of Stinger, tried yesterday to induce Judge Price to modify his ruling against the horse so as to permit of his starting during the remaining days here, but was unsuccessful. Judge Price infimated that the present ruling against the horse would hold good on the Canadian courses.

The following work-outs took place this morning, the track being good:

BANNER MEETING EXPECTED AT WINDSOR.

Management of Canadian Track Makes Preparation to Entertain Larger Crowds Than Ever Before,

Detroit, Mich., July 13.—The Windsor Fair Grounds and Driving Park Association has made preparations for a banner meeting this summer. All the big metropolitan owners are here and the Windsor plant has received a thorough overhauling. 6. M. Hendric, who takes great pride in the racing here, has given the improvements to the plant his personal attention and everything is in readiness for the opening on Saturday. If one is to judge from the number of reservations made at the principal hotels, the meeting this summer will surely eclipse all others ever given here. Racing at Windsor will assume a metropolitan aspect. Many of the New York visitors who are here for the racing have arranged to sojourn at Mt. Clemens, which is only one hour from the course by trolley. The horses will not be called to the post until 245 Betroit time, which will give everybody ample time to be on hand for the opening race.

S. C. Hildreth's big string arrived Tuesday afternoon, and the Carman string came the same day. Mr. Hildreth brought his entire stable, while Mr. Carman shipped twenty from Fort Erie. Tom Healey, who is handling the horses that R. T. Wilson is racing this summer, came over with ten. John W. Schorr brought all of the horses that he raced at Fort Erie. Several of the important stables now racing at Latonia are expected, among them the strings of George M. Odom, John T. Ireland and William Gerst.

The trolley road running to the Windsor track has been double-tracked, which will help the meeting wonderfully.

Mortimer Mahoney who will have charge of the betting ring, arrived frym New York yesterday and reports that indications are already on hand and many more have signified their intention of coming.

The officials will be the same as last year.

hand and many more have signified their intention of coming.

The officials will be the same as last year. Charles F. Price and Frances Nelson will be the judges and A. B. Dade will do the starting. Mr. Dade's work this summer has been uniformly good. Arrangements have been perfected for the bookmakers to do business under cover, which will be a decided improvement over conditions during the recent meeting at Fort Erie.

GOOD PATRONAGE FOR CLOSING DAYS.

Attendance at Lagoon Increases as Meeting Draws Near Its End-Some Horses Change Hands.

Salt Lake City, Utah, July 13.—As the Lagoon meeting draws to a close the attendance is increasing daily. The best mid-week crowd of the season was present today. A handicap at five and one-half furlongs was the principal race of the afternoon and was generally conceded to the Bedwell entry, although Myles O'Connell, as a result of his recent consistent performances, did not lack for support. After indulging Tern's Trick with the lead Myles O'Connell gradually wore the leader down in a hard stretch drive and drew clear to win in handy fashion.

Racing Commissioner George J. Long was among today's visitors.

The horses owned by T. C. McDowell will be shipped to his Ashland Farm in Lexington next Saturday unless the Gittins bill passes and it is assured that there will be a meeting this summer at Saratoga.

James Fitzsimmons has not made up his mind fully where he will ship at the close of this meeting, but he likely will go to Fort Erie.

Trainer Cahili has Sager going soundly again and that horse gives every indication that he will stand training. Trainer Cahili has also put Captain John, Direct and Hannah Louise at jumping and all are taking to it well and fencing admirably. Captain John is showing superiority over the others at present.

Cant. T. Williams appropried that the construction of the same owner's Avenue won the Prix Maintenon, on which Sauval had the mount.

The Bury Handicap of 200 sovereigns, for three-year-olds and upward, distance five furlongs, was won at Newmarket in England yesterday by H. P. Whitney's three-year-old bay filly, First Flight, by Thrush—Earl's Seat.

In the first three days of his Irish visit King George went twice to the races. He attended the Phoenix Park meeting on Saturday and the Leopards-town meeting on Monday. Several of his horses were engaged at Leopardstown.

L. Brassey's St. Crispin won the Dullingham Plate of 1,000 sovereigns at the Newmarket Second July meeting in England Tuesday. Louis Winans' Dalmatian, with J. H. Martin in the saddle, was second, and August Belmont's Belfry II., with Trigg up, finished third.

Bradley's colors will be taken to Idle Hour Farm, at Lexington, by trainer Cliff Hammon and rested until September. Trainer Hammon will busy himself breaking the Bradley yearlings and getting Love Not, Helmet, Bobby Boyer and some maiden two-year-olds ready for fall and winter racing.

SHEEPSHEAD BAY CLUB PROPERTY SOLD.

New York, July 13.—The Sheepshead Bay Club, a relic of the palmy days of racing at Sheepshead Bay, has just been sold for $20,000 in foreclosure proceedings in Brooklyn. The property includes the house and grounds and was at one time valued at $100,000. The club was near the Sheepshead Bay race track and, when racing was at its height, its membership included a large number of notable racing men. There was only one bidder for the property at the foreclosure proceedings, and he got it at his own figures.

BOOKMAKING FOR WINDSOR RACING.

Detroit, Mich., July 13.—Open bookmaking will prevail during the Windsor meeting which will open Saturday. The management of the Windsor Association carefully looked into the pari-mutuel system of betting and determined, after weighing public opinion, that the Detroit public was not yet quite ready for the system in vogue on the Kentucky tracks. So the bookmakers will draw in for positions at the track across the river this year as they have been in the habit of doing for many years past.

HAGGIN'S YEARLINGS SELL FOR $18,500.

London, Eng., July 13.—Twenty-six of J. B. Haggin's American yearlings were sold Tuesday at Tattersall's, Newmarket. The best price was for a bay filly by Watercress—Hamburg Belle, for which A. J. Joyner, trainer for H. P. Whitney, paid $2.250. The total sales netted about $18,500, an average of $700

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

J. H. W., Toronto, Ont. Prices as received and deemed correct. M. L. K., Lincoln, Ill. It won $5.03, calling for a return of $7.03.

a return of $7.03.

L. C., Chicago. Barette was the "favorite horse" in the auction pooling. The time is correct.

Patrick F., Buffalo, N. Y. First Premium was 4 to 1 place, 2 to 1 show. New Star was even place and 1 to 2 show.

J. J. E., Chicago. Cannot inform you. Club only gives out such prices on first three. Being the favorite you can be sure she was well backed to show.

M. H. R., Lexington, Ky. It is one of those cases that the persons concerned must settle between themselves. A bookmaker should not take a bet that he is not willing to settle on some basis.
